

Full Mission Statement

East West Army Surplus Ltd is committed to the professional supply of military surplus to wholesale and retail partners across diverse sectors, including defence contractors, military personnel, specialist retailers and the film and fashion industries. With extensive experience in both wholesale distribution and retail, we leverage our deep understanding of military supply chains to ensure the timely and accurate provision of dependable, top-quality surplus.

Operating with precision, discipline, and integrity, we monitor global surplus markets and government disposal cycles to secure assets of strategic value. Our robust logistics network, efficient infrastructure, and trusted industry relationships position us as a leading force in military surplus distribution.

East West Army Surplus Ltd serves as a critical link between government disposals and the end user, delivering consistency, reliability, and operational excellence. If you want the best, you want East West Army Surplus.
